

WILLIMANTIC

What is Going On Tonight

Remainder and Prohibition Order of Eastern Star Lodge, No. 441 A. F. and

A. M., stated communication at Masonic hall.

Ex-Mayor Daniel P. Dunn stated Tuesday evening that Governor Cox of Ohio would appear personally before the people of this city this (Wednesday) afternoon, following the arrival of the 1.20 train.

Whether the governor will speak to the crowd or not could not be learned but Mr. Dunn had been informed by the state democratic committee that some member of the governor's party would speak if Cox was unable to do so himself. The reason given for the change in plans is that Governor Cox is having trouble with his throat and it has been deemed advisable to lessen the number of speeches on his schedule. However, even though the people of this city are unable to hear Cox speak, plans for the reception to be given him, his arrival can be carried out. Prominent democrats, both men and women, will meet Cox personally upon his arrival.

The annual gentlemen's night of the Willimantic Woman's club was held on Tuesday evening at the Congregational church house, over 200 being present.

The entertainment of the evening was provided by an orchestra recently formed by Miss Mary Rose Blumhardt and consisting of boys and girls all under 20 years of age. The musical numbers received were of the highest order and many honors were demanded. The other entertainment was provided by Mr. Clark of Boston, his numbers delighting the audience. The following address was made by Mrs. Robert H. Penton, president of the woman's club, who said that it was a pleasure to be able to have so many of the men present as guests of the club on this evening. Following the entertainment, refreshments of chicken chicken, rolls, coffee and cake were served. The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing, the music being provided by Hickey's orchestra. The program committee was made up as follows:

Mrs. Florence Tracy, chairman; Mrs. A.

Scripture, Mrs. Herbert Pollard, Mrs.

Otto B. Robinson.

The boardman session at the town hall Tuesday made somewhat over 140 new voters during the day, bringing the total number of voters made up to nearly 1,700. Of this number, 1,500 are women voters and the remaining 200 are men voters. During the coming election on figures for the town elections, the total number of persons that might be expected to cast their ballot will be close to 4,000 in the town. At the recent town election about 2,200 ballots were cast, about 300 of which were cast by women.

When the board began its final session on Tuesday morning there remained about 500 names of those to be made. Members of the board stated Tuesday evening that many of these names were those of women enviously voters, or were duplicate names of those now on the lists.

Sixteen motorists charged with transporting automobiles with illegal lenses appeared at the police court Tuesday morning and nine of them received fines of ten dollars and costs amounting to $13.15.

Two other cases were continued these being Everett J. Burke of Thiriftville and James E. Mad of Willimantic. The date for the hearing will be November

3rd. Joseph Berghman, of Norwich, failed to appear in response to those who paid the fine of ten dollars and costs were James Aspinwall, Samuel Boucher, William H. Brehant, Max Rothblatt, Herman Frank and Frank H. Brehant of this city. Frank Gernallinsky and Harold Woodworth of South Coventry and Albert B. Wetherbee of North Windham.

In the case of the felicit four hundred were remitted: John P. Cury, South

Coventry, Jack Seligbaum of Leonard's

Bridge, Edmund Freeman and Charles P.

Mulligan of Willimantic.

Pleas of guilty were entered by all these men excepting Seligbaum, who thought he was within the law as the upper half of the lenses of his car were painted with black varnish. Inspector Gorgan stated that this did comply with the law, but that the varnish had worn off and the lights had become glaring. Most of the men had their cars equipped with Moreside lenses, so-called, but these do not comply with the state laws.

Evidence against the motorists was furnished by Motor Vehicle Inspectors Gorgan and Carroll who operated in this city since October 11th, the delay in hearing the cases being due to the number of cases the inspectors had ahead in other cities where they had been on duty.

The list at the office of Town Clerk Frank P. Penton shows that four hundred residents of Windham have taken out licenses for hunting purposes and are hauling the country nearby after small game.

Sergeant Wilson, of Springfield, recently discharged, has an office at 28 Union street and is looking for volunteers for the U. S. army. The office will remain open until the end of this month and any information desired can be obtained by applying there.

Canton Windham, Uniform Rank, L. O.

O. P., is to hold a public inspection at the town hall, October 22. The inspection is to be in charge of Colonel C. M. Chappell and staff of New Haven.

Over a dozen members of Willimantic

Women's Christian Temperance Union were Tuesday to attend the forty-fifth annual state convention to be held at the Church of the Redeemer, in Hartford. Sessions opened at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the final session to be at that hour Thursday afternoon.

Frank P. Penton, town clerk of Windham is to be the speaker at the citizenship meeting for women to be held at the

to be in charge of Colonel C. M. Chap-

pell and staff of New Haven.

session will be the discussion of registration, primaries, reasons for existence of political parties, use of the ballot, what disabilities and other matters of interest to those who are to use the ballot for the first time at the November elections. Sample ballots will be distributed among the women present and instruction about voting straight or split tickets will be given. In the final session a series of three non-partisan instructive talks for women that have been held at the association building under the auspices of the agent of Americanization of the town of Windham. The attendance at the first two sessions was large just as the meeting evening comes down closer to the voters, every woman is being urged to attend and learn how the franchise should be used thus doing away with the delay that might arise on election day if the voter was not familiar with the use of the ballot.

Miss Joseph Carson, formerly of Baltimore, new of Hartford, and Miss Fiedelle Marie Lambert of this city were united in marriage Tuesday morning at eight o'clock at St. Mary's church. Rev. William T. O'Brien of East performing the ceremony and celebrating the solemn high nuptial mass. Rev. Ludovic Paradis of Putnam and Rev. James Tyler were deacon and sub-deacon. John Carson, brother of the groom was best man, and Miss Florina A. Calise of the city was bridesmaid. The bride wore a rich brown chiffon velvet with hat trimmed with brown and orange ostrich plumes. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaid wore sapphire chiffon velvet and carried Killarney roses.
Special music was given during the service and Joseph P. Gaudreau sang O Promise Me.

Following the ceremony the bridal party motored to Hartford where breakfast was served at the Hotel Heublein. Mr. and Mrs. Carson will spend their honeymoon at Niagara Falls and Montreal.

They will be at home at No. 24 Windsor avenue, Hartford, on November 1st.

The groom is a salesman for the Hartford branch of the American Tobacco Co.

His bride is the daughter of Alfred Lambeth of No. 111 Walnut street, Willimantic and has been stenographer for the firm of Caldwell and Jones, of Hartford.

Funeral services for Mrs. Marie Battelle Schilling were held Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Archibald B. Sharpe of

No. 144 Chestnut street, and were conducted by Rev. Harry S. McCready of the First Congregational church. The body was placed on board the 2:30 p. m.

train Tuesday to be sent to Toledo, O., where services will be held and burial will take place in Woodlawn cemetery.

Funeral Director J. M. Shepard was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Minnie M. White, 59, died Monday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George H. Chamberlain, of North

Windham, death being due to infirmities of age. She was born September 4, 1861, in Mansfield and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Chamberlain with whom she lived, Mrs. Carrie M. Spidel of New Rochelle, N. Y., and two sons, Frank M.

White of Chapin and Albert L. White of South Manchester.

John P. Taylor, 54, died at the home of Irving B. Hopkins of Hampton following an illness of some 60 days. She was born in Brooklyn, Conn., January 14,

1863, the daughter of David and Celeste Cady Taylor and is survived by several nephews and nieces.

Following the disbanding of the Willamantic Choral club, a club organized eight years ago, the Union Ste. Jean de Zephrine society took over its lease of the hall on the top floor of the Opera House block on Main street. The hall is to be open every night for members of that society and to the women's auxiliary,

Council No. 2, Cecile.
